

PRESS RELEASE: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A NIGHT OF WORSHIP with KIM WALKER-SMITH

Rancho Mirage, CA, January 16, 2012: Are you longing to connect with the heart of the Father? As part of Victory Christian Center's month long celebration of thirty years of fruitful ministry in the Coachella Valley, Pastors Jeff and Melissa Walker are excited to announce A Night of Worship with contemporary Christian artist, Kim Walker-Smith. The event will take place on Friday, February 17th at 7:00pm on the VCC campus in Rancho Mirage. Doors open at 6:30pm.

Kim is best known as a featured artist and worship leader with Jesus Culture, an outreach ministry of Bethel Church based in Redding, California, that hosts conferences throughout the United States, England, and Australia. She has participated in several music projects with Jesus Culture Music which released her first solo album, Here is My Song, in 2008. Her cover of John Mark McMillan's How He Loves Us has been viewed more than four million times on YouTube. When describing her heart for worship Kim said, "I am a passionate person and it comes out in my worship. I love justice and I love people. I have a heart to see the arts and creativity restored and a new standard set. The Holy Spirit is my friend."

She and her husband, Skyler Smith, were married in 2009 and make their home in Redding. Together, they founded Only Love Remains, a ministry to which they devote the majority of their time. Through worship events, they hope to leave something lasting behind that goes beyond a concert. Their goal is to convey that God's presence and love is available to everyone. As they seek God for 2012, ministry focus is building up worship leaders and developing relationships with pastoral leaders. In addition, they are currently creating materials to assist worship leaders as they lead people into His presence.
